About the band:

Sacramento Fire Fighters Pipes & Drums (SFFPD) is a non-profit organization dedicated to honoring fallen brothers and sisters through traditional Celtic music. The band travels the country playing at events like funerals, weddings, graduations, change of command ceremonies, charitable functions, and holiday celebrations. The organization is primarily funded through donations. Band members are sworn active or retired public safety employees from Sacramento and surrounding areas. Band members consist of both firefighters and police officers.
